

SWIFT Institute

Cyber Security 3.0 – Better Together

Friday 18 August, 2017

Fullerton Hotel, Singapore

Hosted by Peter Ware, Director, SWIFT Institute

08:30 - 09:00	Registration and Welcome Coffee
09:10 - 09:30	Welcome and Opening remarks Alain Raes, Chief Executive, APAC & EMEA, SWIFT
09:30 - 10:30	Research presentation : William Carter, Centre for Strategic and International Studies (CSIS) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Forces Shaping the Next Generation of Cyber Threats to Financial Institutions
10:30 - 11:00	Coffee Break
11:00 – 12:00	Research presentation : Casey Evans, American University’s Kogod School of Business <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Sharing Insider Threat Indicators: Leveraging SWIFT’s Messaging Platform to Combat Cyber Fraud With commentary by SWIFT - Saqib Sheikh, Head of Sales Services, Asia Pacific
12:00 - 13:00	Lunch
13:00 - 13:45	Carnegie Endowment for International Peace Tim Maurer <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Toward a Global Norm against manipulating the Integrity of Financial Data
13:45 – 14:45	Panel Discussion – How to collaborate to thwart cyber-attacks Experts from the financial industry will discuss the importance of collaboration, both internally within their organisations and externally across the industry, and how together we can improve our cyber-security. Moderator – Caitríona Heintz, Research Fellow, Cyber Policy & Strategy, Cyber Risk Management Project, Nanyang Business School Panellists <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Roy Wilmoth, Head of Liabilities & Financial Lines, AIG Asia Pacific Insurance Pte. Ltd. ○ David Leach, Chief Information Security Officer, APAC, J.P. Morgan ○ David Ng, Head of Singapore Technology Information Security Office, OCBC Bank ○ Saqib Sheikh, Head of Sales Services, Asia Pacific, SWIFT
14:45 – 15:15	Coffee Break

SWIFT Institute

15:15 – 16:15	Research Presentations : NTU-MAS Cyber Risk Management Project Present the findings of the NTU-MAS Cyber Risk Management Project (CyRiM) as well as the significance of the evolving cyber risk insurance market in the financial sector. The project is an interdisciplinary government-industry-academia research endeavour that aims to foster business solutions in order to strengthen cybersecurity and data integrity through supporting the development of an effective cyber risk insurance market. Presenters <ul style="list-style-type: none">○ Caitríona Heintl, Research Fellow, Cyber Policy & Strategy, Cyber Risk Management Project, Nanyang Business School○ Professor Shaun Wang, Director Cyber Risk Management Project, Nanyang Business School○ Professor Lam Kwok Yan, School of Computer Science and Engineering, College of Engineering, NTU
16:15 – 16:45	Keynote Speech for Closing Plenary Stella Cramer, Partner, Norton Rose Fulbright (Asia) LLP