

TORONTO
16 - 19 Oct 2017

Canada at 150: Still a work in progress

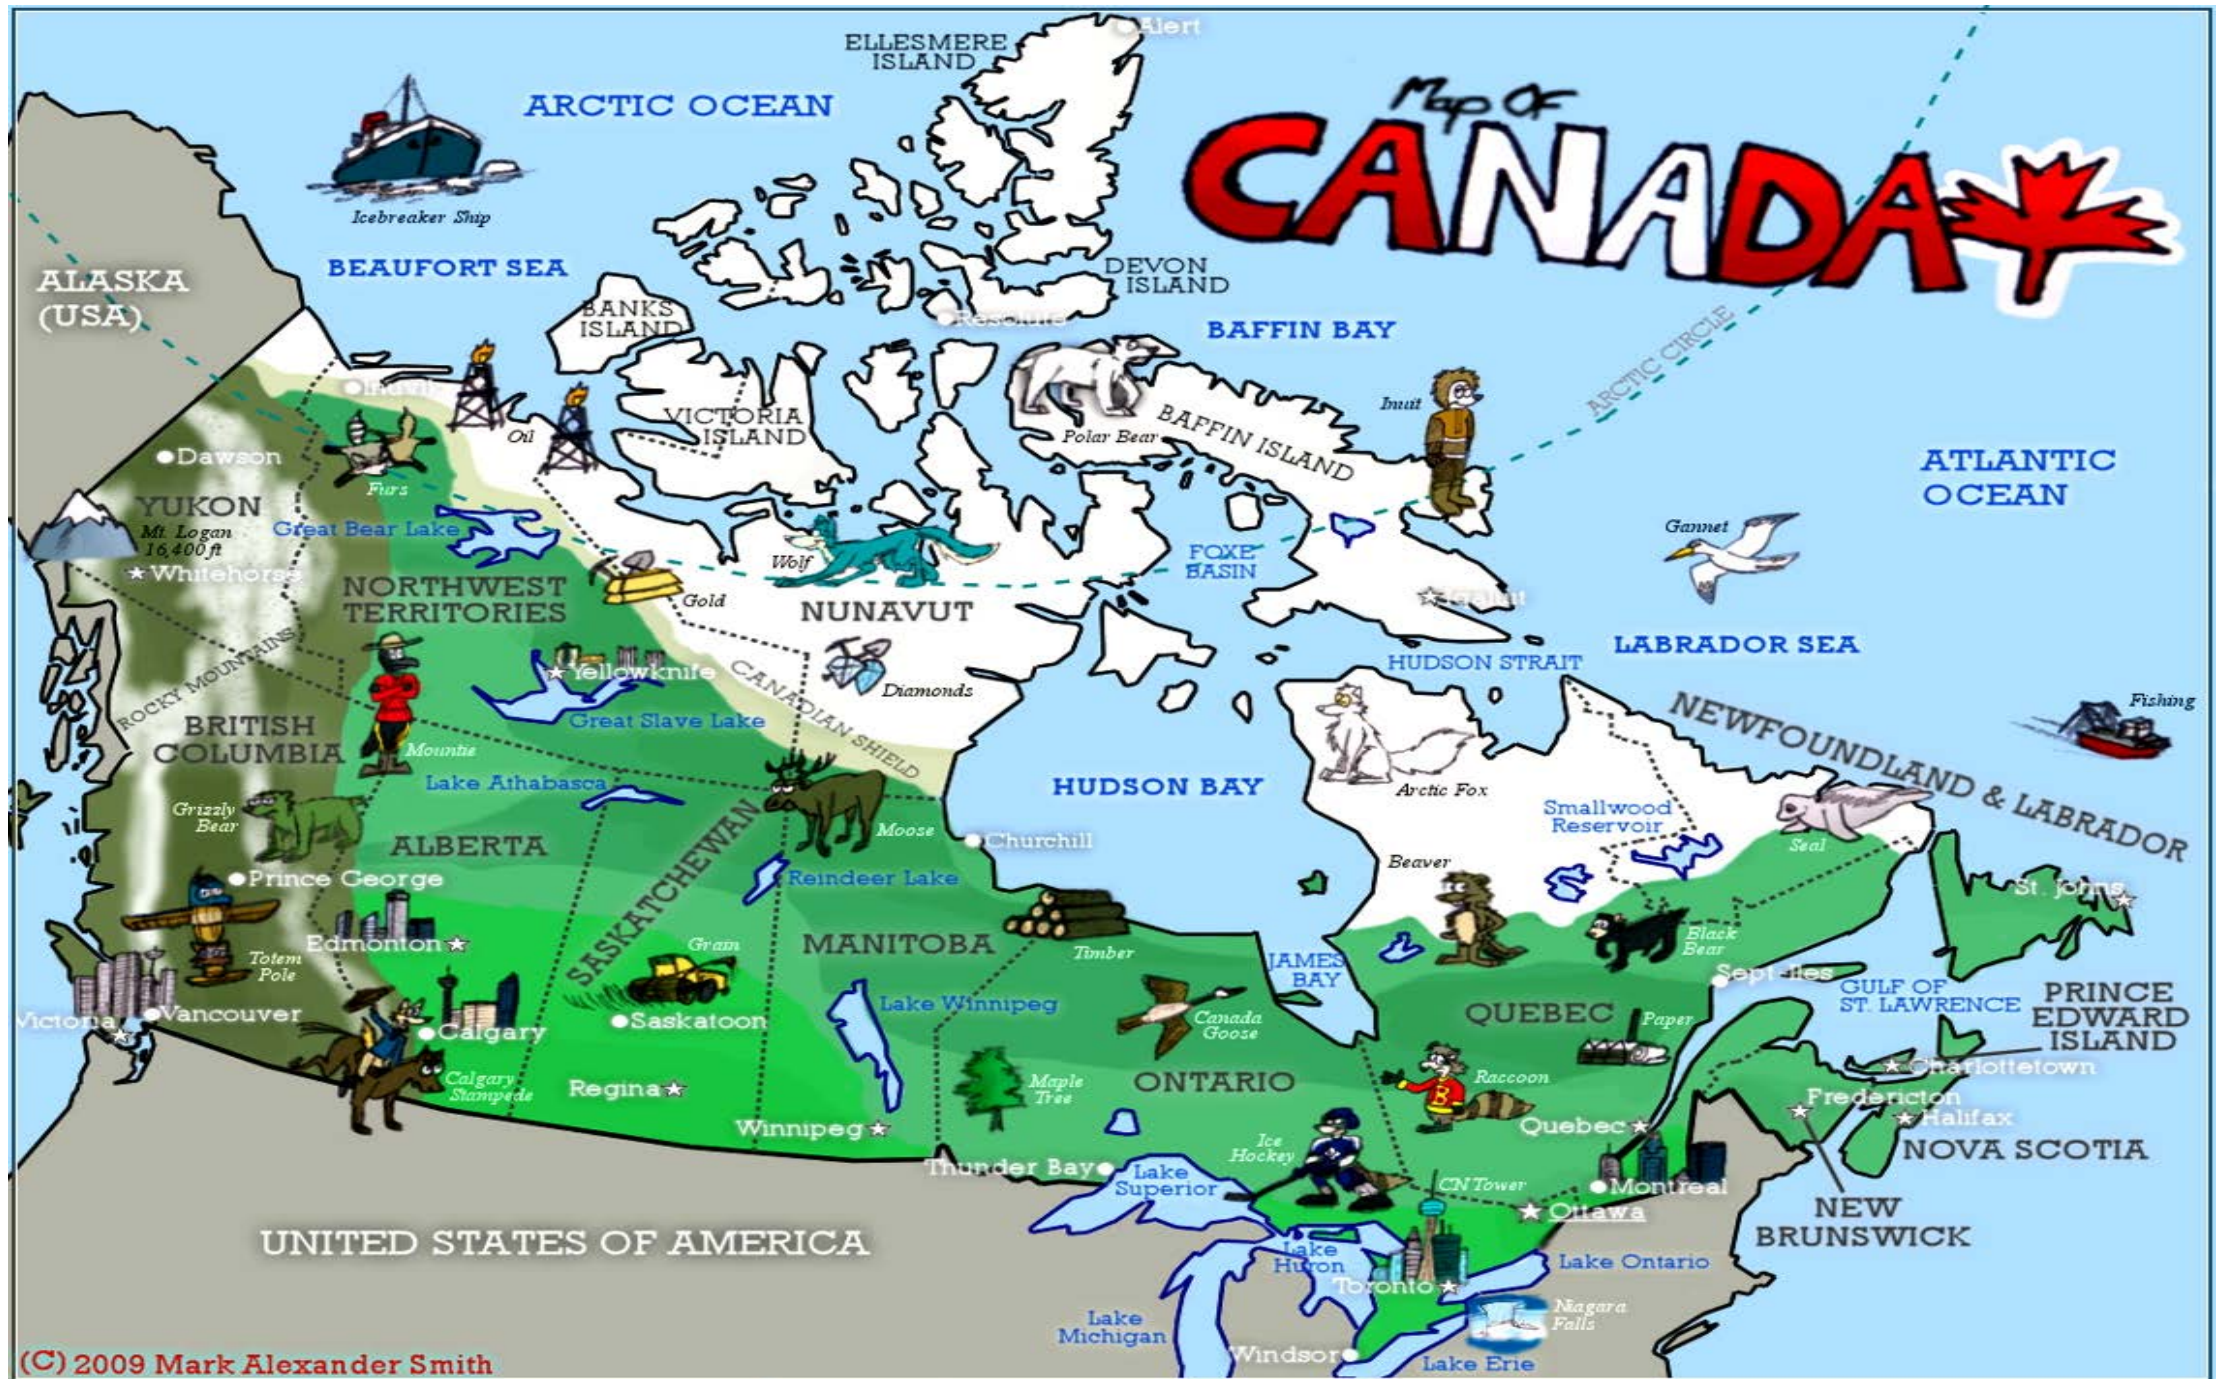

TORONTO
16 - 19 Oct 2017

Charlotte Gray, C.M.

Adjunct Research Professor
Carleton University

"What part of Canada that I know nothing about are you from?"

7 percent of world's fresh water is in Canada

Government

2017: 150 years since the birth of modern Canada

A constitutional monarchy: Queen Elizabeth II is the head of state

Parliamentary system of government: Prime Minister Justin Trudeau

The Economist

OCTOBER 26th - NOVEMBER 27th 2014

The Trump-Putin bromance
China's fight to control its history
AT&T and the future of TV
Hands off the Bank of England

Liberty moves north

Canada's example
to the world

People

Toronto, Canada's largest and most diverse city.
One third of residents speak a language other than English or French

Ontario

NO TEXTING
OR DIALING

APPELS-TEXTOS
INTERDITS

Rural population: older, more conservative, and less than 1 in 5

Economy

Canada holds 10% of known global oil reserves

Auto industry important part of manufacturing sector

$117b

Tech Sector
GDP

% of Total GDP

76.3% of total Canadian exports go to USA

Issues

Relations with Canada's 1.8 million Indigenous peoples (5.6% of total)

Sustainability of health care system (11% of GDP: $6,299 per person)

Immigration & Refugees: still welcome?

Trade concerns, particularly NAFTA

Canadians you may know...

CÉLINE DION

Leonard Cohen

Mark Carney, Governor of the Bank of England

Canadians you may not know as Canadians....

Rap singer Drake, holder of several Billboard chart records

Kim Cattrall: Sex in the City

Dominic Barton, global managing partner of McKinsey & Co.

Scotty (Star Trek), played by Canadian actor James Doohan

Questions